CITY OFFERS FREE PET IDENTIFICATION PROGRAM

Brazil, Indiana In an effort to return pets to their owners the City of Brazil is sponsoring a free pet identification program to Brazil City Residents. The program is designed to help return pets to their respective owners. Each identification tag is unique with an identifying number to match pets and their owners.

To obtain a free identification tag, pet owners must complete an application with the necessary information. Applications are available online at www.brazil.in.gov/forms/petidapplication.pdf, in the Brazil City Police Department, at any Brazil Area Veterinary, or the Clay County Humane Society. Applications should be returned to the Brazil Police Department in person to obtain the free identification.
